

Webb's World

Volume 7, Issue 15
December 01, 2011

*Please remember to dress for the weather. It is getting cold outside and we will go outside to play whenever we can. As long as it is not below freezing, we try to play outdoors.

This Week:

We have been working with the letter Ee. We have been very busy working out, making our very own weights and sweat bands, cooking eggs (We read "Green Eggs & Ham," and made green eggs), and graphing our favorite exercises.

Upcoming Events:

- Dec. 6th – Christmas Program
- Dec. 14th – PLC Early-Out
- Dec. 18th – Mason M. 5th Birthday
- Dec. 19th – P.M. Christmas Party @ 2:00p.m.
- Dec. 20th – NO AFTERNOON PRESCHOOL
A.M. Christmas Party @ 9:40a.m.
Begin Christmas Break! See you

Letter Person: Ms. E

We have been learning about Ms. E! She has exercise energy and exercises everyday. Ms. E has taught us that we all need exercise, food, sleep, a home, and love! Ms. E is a LetterLight that helps light the way to making words just like Ms. A & Ms. O!

We have been studying the letters: N, W, P, H, M, A, B, K, D, F, O, C & E! Please keep practicing these letters at home!

Menu

- Monday – Hamburger
- Tuesday – Chicken patty
- Wednesday – Tacos
- Thursday – Corn dogs

Snacks

Our snack supply is running low. Please send in some snacks. When choosing a snack for our preschool room, remember to look at the label to make sure that it has not been made in a factory with peanuts or oats. Thank you very much!
